Children's Spray Pads Open For The Summer

The City of London has a fun activity for London kids to get wet and stay cool. This Friday, May 18, the City's seven outdoor spray pads will open. "The spray pads are a safe way for children to keep cool and play outside on warm days," says Lynn Loubert, Manager of Aquatic Services. "The spray pads are activated by a push of a button and the water rotates between the different water play features."

The following spray pads will be open May 18 to September 3 from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.:

- Rowntree Park - on Whetter Avenue off Wellington Road
- Fork of the Thames - off Riverside Drive and King Street
- West Lions Park - on Granville Avenue beside Kinsmen Recreation Centre
- Lambeth Centennial Park - on Beattie Avenue across from the Lambeth Arena
- Kiwanis Park - off Hale Street
- Jesse Davidson Park - off Monte Vista Crescent or Ensign Crescent
- Bonaventure Meadows - at the school 141 Bonaventure Drive (Note: this site operates under different hours)

Opening soon will be a new spray pad next to the Saturn Playground in Gibbons Park. Children can also cool off at the spray pad at Storybook Gardens. For information on Storybook Gardens' hours of operation visit the website.
